ALLEN WALKER HELD OVER TO GRAND JURY

Negro Charged With Perjury at Carr Inquest Faces Term of Several Years in Penitentiary

Allen Walker, the colored porter employe at George H. Farris' grocery who was arrested charged with perjury, immediately after the coroner's inquest in the Anderson Carr case last week, was held over to await the next grand jury by County Judge James P. Bailey, at his examining trial last Thursday. His bond was fixed at $50, which has not yet been given and he will probably remain in jail until his case is called.

The testimony of a number of witnesses at the coroner's inquest over the body of Carr's wife, showed that Walker was seen to enter Carr's place about five o'clock the Sunday afternoon of the killing; to go out and remain about thirty minutes and then to enter again. Practically all of this he denied in his testimony, and as a result a warrant, charging him with perjury was sworn out.

Those who have talked to Walker say that it was fear of Carr, which prompted him to give the testimony he did when he was put on the stand. He now admits, it is said, that he went into Carr's place after the murder, but denies that Carr told him anything of the murder of his wife, or that he saw any signs of a murder. He says, it is reported, that Carr seemed very nervous and threatened to kill "anyone who turned him up," or any officers who came, or words to that effect, Walker says it is claimed however, that Carr said nothing to him of the murder, and that he knew nothing of it.

The officers, believe, however that Walker is not inclined to tell all he knows of the dreadful occurrence. There is a sentiment in some quarters, it is understood, to go easy on the negro if he is willing to "come across" and make a clean breast of all he knows. Otherwise he faces a penitentiary sentence of two or three years.

REPUBLICANS BEGIN FIGHTING IN PULASKI

Taft and Roosevelt Men Line Up For Contest To Control County's Rights.

Somerset, Ky., March 9.—The Roosevelt-Taft fight is certainly leaping rapidly into the "red-hot" stage in Pulaski county, and the past three days has been the situation jump from one or ordinary activity right into the seething point, and every indication now points to the "fur-flying" pace from this time on until the county convention is held on April 6 to select delegates to the district and State convention.

Tuesday the Taft forces unlimbered their biggest gun and dropped a ten inch shell into the Roosevelt camp by the announcement of Judge O. H. Waddle, of this place, as a candidate for delegate from the 11th district to the national convention in which announcement he paid his respects to Roosevelt in a very certain and not very complimentary manner.

Wednesday the Taft crowd was given just as great a shock when the Roosevelt managers hurled a bomb into their camp in the public announcement of Judge B. J. Bethrum of this place, that he was a candidate for delegate from the Eleventh district to the national convention and in which announcement he takes occasion to laud the ex-President in a very high manner and express himself quite plainly with reference to President Taft. Judge Bethrum is the present Circuit Judge of this judicial district, composed of Pulaski, Rockcastle, Wayne and Clinton counties.

In this announcement the lines of battle are squarely drawn, and there is no denying the fact that it will be a battle royal and one which has not been seen here since the celebrated fight between Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter and D. C. Edwards for congressional nomination—and, strange to say, Hunter has charge of Taft's fight in the Eleventh, while his erstwhile adversary, Edwards, is in charge of Roosevelt's fight in this district.

Lined up for Roosevelt is former Collector of Internal Revenue J. Sherman Cooper, probably one of the shrewdest politicians in Eastern Kentucky, and with him is Circuit Judge Bethrum, Commonwealth's Attorney Jarvis, County Judge R. C. Tartar, Sheriff J. M. Weddle, County Clerk C. M. Langdon, Judge William Catron, United States Commissioner E. T. Wesley, and numerous other local political workers, while doing battle for Taft will be found Judge O. H. Waddle, County Attorney R. B. Waddell, Postmaster, T. M. Scott who is a nephew of Senator W. O. Bradley, United States District Attorney Edwin P. Morrow, who is also a nephew of Senator Bradley, and his father, Judge T. Z. Morrow, brother-in-law of Senator Bradley, United States Superintendent of Public Schools, Wesley J. Barnes and various other knowing ones in the political game. Judge R. C. Tartar, who was probably the first Republican of any note here to announce for Roosevelt, is chairman of the County Committee and will preside at the county convention when it meets to organize.

The first Roosevelt Club of women voters, so far as is known in the United States, has formed at Sunnyside, Washington. A full corps of officers was selected and a campaign in behalf of the Colonel's candidacy decided upon.

FAIR DATES CHOSEN

At a meeting of several fair secretaries in Danville last week the date for the Harrodsburg Fair was fixed for July 30, 31 and August 1 and 2, and Danville for August 7, 8 and 9, so that neither will conflict with the great K. P. fair at Stanford August 21, 22 and 23. It is said, that one of the attractions billed for Harrodsburg this year is a flying machine which will make daily ascensions and the directors will in turn take a spin through the elements with the bird man.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION

Important to Everyone

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

During the winter months, especially, when we live an indoor life, the kidneys should receive some assistance when needed as we take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, inability to hold urine, smarting or burning brick-dust or sediment, salivary complexion, rheumatism may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

An herbal medicine containing no minerals or opiates has the most healing influence. An ideal herbal compound that has most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention the Stanford Interior Journal. For sale by all drug stores.

The Ohio Constitutional convention by a vote of 76 to 33 adopted a proposal to extend full suffrage to women.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments, colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and constipation are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cure your cold while you can? For sale by G. L. Penny.

If you have trouble in getting rid of your cold you may know that you are not treating it properly. There is no reason why a cold should hang on for weeks and it will not if you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by G. L. Penny.

TORE UP TROUSERS TO KEEP FROM GOING TO PEN.

But Ruse of Buena Vista Compton Failed to Work—Prisoners Taken Over By Sheriff

Buena Vista Compton, the young Moreland desperado, was taken to the state penitentiary at Frankfort last Thursday by Sheriff McCarty to spend the remainder of his life, upon the third conviction. However the officer did not get him to the train without some trouble, for, when Mr. McCarty went to the jail after him, Compton refused to don a pair of trousers to wear to Frankfort. Investigation revealed the fact that during the night he had torn the only pair of trousers he possessed into shreds, and there were really no pants for him to wear.

Jailer Dink Farmer was about to adopt summary measures to force Compton to put on a pair of trousers, when his son Alfred came to the prisoner's rescue, and gave him an old pair to wear. Compton, seeing that he was "up against it" put the breeches on and departed with the sheriff.

John Harris Rout, known as "Possum," who was sent up for life for killing Clay Drye, was also taken over to Frankfort, at the same time.

Sheriff McCarty took Jesse Cole to the Reform School, on the same trip. This is the 18-year-old lad who broke into a trunk at the Veranda Hotel, and was convicted in the circuit court. He will stay at the House of Reform until he is 21 years of age.

MAT REYNOLDS

Mat Reynolds was born the year of 1850, and died at his home near Kingsville on Green river, Feb. 28, 1912, lacking but a few days of being 62 years of age. The most of his life was spent in and near Waynesburg, where he was united in marriage with Miss Charity Caldwell, the daughter of the highly respected late Henry Caldwell, of that place. To this union were born three sons, Marshall and Marion of Arkansas, and William, of Pulaski.

His first wife died in 1894 and shortly after this he was married to Mrs. Isaphine Flint, of this county, who still survives him. Besides his wife and three sons, he is survived by one brother, James Reynolds of Tennessee and one sister Mrs. Lavene Moser, of this county.

In his early manhood he joined the Baptist church at Waynesburg and since that he has loved his church and did all man could do toward the Kingdom of God.

Nothing can be said against his life or character, for he was loyal as a citizen, ever supporting the principles of civic righteousness, always the highest moral standards, and he never lost an opportunity of doing good to all.

On the beautiful afternoon while the sun was shedding her gentle rays upon us, he was laid to rest in the old Double Springs cemetery, now known as the Waynesburg cemetery and here he will sleep, until the judgment day. Truly a good man has gone. May God comfort and abide with the loved ones who remain.

While it is sad to part, yet we believe that He, who placed us here, knows best when to take us away, hence we bow in submission to His will and say good bye. WALTER MOSER.

Mr. Stewart was esteemed by all who knew him and leaves many friends and loved ones to mourn that he is no more.

DICK SCUDDER IN FRONT RANK OF SADDLE HORSE MEN

Offered to Pay $2,500 a Year For 3 Years For Rex Peavine, But Failed to Get the Great Sire.

Observer, in the Farmers Home Journal, says: $10,000 for a saddle horse. This is the price that Judge I. H. Thurman, of Springfield, Ky., offered for the high class stallion, Rex Peavine, recently.

The owner James S. Hockaday refused it stating that the horse had been given him by his father, who desired the sire of Edna May to be kept in the family and that he would comply with his father's request.

An offer to lease the stallion for three years at $2,500 per year was also turned down.

The latter offer was made by Dick Scudder, of McKinney, who has done much towards elevating the stallion to his present high position as a saddle horse sire.

Dick Scudder is certainly right in the front rank of the high class saddle horse breeders of the state.

E. D. Mooers resident manager of the Eaton Stock Farm owned by Bruce G. Eaton, Esq., of Greeley, Colorado, is getting together one of the greatest bands of brood mares owned by any one individual in the saddle horse business. Mr. Mooers has been scouring the country to find what he wants, and has made many purchases in Kentucky within the past thirty days. Among those receiving his patronage are Ball Bros., of Versailles, from whom he purchased two head, R. S. Scudder, of McKinney, two head, Mrs. R. T. Lowndes, one, Estate of Harry Moody, one C. S. Andy, Milton Ky., three, Walter S. Ball, Milton, one, and from Col. John T. Hughes four head.

Don't fail to attend the St. Patrick's birthday party given by the Endeavors of the Christian church at the State Bank & Trust Company rooms March 14th. Everyone invited.

Samuel J. Roberts, of Lexington former collector of internal revenue who was ousted by President Taft, has declared for the latter in his campaign for renomination.

John W. Sickelsmith, Grenesboro, Pa., has three children, and like most children they frequently take cold. "We have tried several kinds of cough medicine," he says, but have never found any yet that did them as much good as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." For sale by G. L. Penny.

THE PEOPLE LOSE AGAIN

Under the influence of the most powerful lobby seen in Frankfort in years, the House last week defeated by 61 to 22 the Public Utilities Commission Bill. This measure was designed to force the corporations of the state to bear their just proportion of the burden of taxation and give some relief to the already over-taxed farmers. The bill was championed by administration leaders and opposed by Auditor Bosworth and his adherents who feared it would deprive them of some of the patronage of their officers.

Representative Elwood Hamilton, of Franklin county, who is proving one of the ablest leaders in the General Assembly, made a powerful speech, for it and turned the lime-light on the influences desiring its defeat. His speech made a profound impression. It was an arraignment that will open the eyes of the taxpayers of the State to the wrongs that have been visited upon them by the tax-dodging corporations, who every year by under-valuation of their property, deprive the treasury of from $500,000 to $1,000,000 of revenue.

No measure, he said, had ever been lobbied against more bitterly. The moment it became noised about that a bill seeking to require corporations to be taxed had been introduced, he said, representatives of those corporations began to flock to Frankfort. They had been busy day and night, he said and were bending every effort to defeat the measure. He said he had made a personal investigation of the tax situation and had found that the farmers and real estate owners of the State were paying three-fourths of the cost attached to maintaining the State government. Whenever it had been found necessary to increase the State's revenue, he said, the assessment against land owners had been raised, but that against corporations was left at the old figure.

He declared that railroad companies and other public utilities had been assessed at only about one-tenth the real valuation of their holdings, and that the state, as a result, lost from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000 annually in revenue. The State Board of Valuation and Assessment, as at present constituted, has not the authority to probe into the truth of financial statements filed with it by public service corporations as they should be inquired into, he declared, and consequently must take the word of railroad companies and others. He asserted that there was not railroad company in Kentucky that was reporting its proper mileage and that not a public service corporation in the State was paying its just proportion of taxes. Mr. Hamilton further said:

"I found that there was at least $500,000,000 in the state of Kentucky that was not bearing its part of the burden of State Government. "All of this property was owned by public utility companies. I found that there was one Kentucky corporation that paid a dividend on $340,000,000. It paid on an assessed valuation of seven millions. Another corporation in this State listed for taxation one and one-half million dollars, and paid a dividend on fifteen million. I found, on examination of the report of one other railroad company to the auditor and its stockholders, that there was a difference of $12,000,000 and by another railroad company there was a difference of $8,000,000. I found, upon investigation of such corporations as I had an opportunity to investigate, that the property that escaped taxation amounted to millions of dollars."

And yet the power of these corporations was such that they were able to force the chosen representatives of the people of Kentucky to vote against their best interests. Representative Will Shanks, of Lincoln, was ill at home and not present to vote on this bill, but we are mighty glad to note that able and splendid young son of Garrard, John M. Farra, registered his vote in its favor.

Those who paint politics as black as Hades itself are not always right by a jugful. Down in Western Kentucky, Editor Henry R. Lawrence of the Cadiz Record, opposed Seldon Glenn, for the senatorial nomination. The committee gave it to Glenn, by methods which some politicians would have called high-handed piracy, etc. Not so Lawrence. He took his medicine like a man, and helped elect Glenn, who is now about completing his first term in the Senate. In the last issue of his paper Editor Lawrence says, among other nice things, of the Senator:

"We can say truthfully, from an intimate personal knowledge of the situation, that the people of no district of the State have been more ably represented during the present session of the Legislature than the people of the Third, and no member of the Senate has striven harder to do what was best for the people of the entire State than Senator Glenn. There is a bright future for him, and if he follows the line which he has already laid out for himself during the past sixty days' service at Frankfort, there is no doubt that the day is not far in the future when he will be called into a more active and broader field of public service."

Now, that's what we call being a big, broad-minded citizen, and we think that Henry Lawrence deserves just as much credit as Seldon Glenn.

We personally know that everything nice he says about Glenn would have applied just as well in his case, had he been the Senator. Such amenities as this between opponents in political matters is so unusual that it deserves special notice. Who says that the old world is not getting better?

Editor Orr, of the Harrodsburg Leader, gives his "Point of View" on the presidential situation in a column editorial in his good republican paper last week. The point with us is, we can't tell from reading it, whom he favors, Roosevelt or Taft. Now which one of these eminent leaders are you for. Brother Orr? Speak up.

Road Amundsen, a Norwegian, is said to have found the south pole. As far as we are concerned, he can keep it.

A Civil Service examination for rural route carrier will be held at the post office in Stanford on April 6th. A vacancy is to be filled on the rural routes out of Hustonville, and applicants will have to pass examination which will be held by the government. The examination is open to all, and it is understood that the one, who turns in the most satisfactory papers will get the appointment.

SPRING SUITING

My new spring and summer samples are now ready for your inspection. They comprise the best on the market. I can suit anyone as to price who had his clothes made to order. A suit made to your measure is preferable to ready made clothes. To have them made to measure doesn't cost any more than ready made when quality and fit is considered. HUSTONVILLE

By some inscrutable combination of confusing complications, the post office department has manifestly been nushed into playing favorites in our mail service, which is not simply a grievous discrimination against many patrons of Liberty and Moreland Star line, but is a disgrace to the Department.

The best practicable service is assumed to be paramount to convenience or even profit of officials.

"D—n the people and their interests, conflicting with officials is the sentiment controlling autocrats who are entrenched or wire-workers who have the pull.

For years carriers have supplied Liberty and Moreland Star line a morning and afternoon service, and one Sunday service, the equal to city service. Letters delivered by morning carrier could be answered by afternoon service. Now a delay of 24 hours is inevitable without a special messenger.

All mail brought by morning carrier from Moreland to Hustonville for distribution along Liberty Star line is now given Rural 2 carrier for afternoon distribution, instead of being handed Star carrier who leaves Hustonville for Liberty at same time with rural carrier. Star carrier could serve his patrons 6 to 7 hours earlier than rural carrier now does.

Daily papers Star carrier brings to Hustonville for his patrons and could deliver before 8 A. M., are distributed after 2 P. M. by rural carrier.

Rural carrier has also imposed on him Star carrier's afternoon collections which involves possibility of rural carrier not getting matter to Hustonville in time for Star carrier to get it to that day's mail train.

Postmaster at Hustonville declares that Rural 2 has ample volume of business without a division with Star lines over which is half its route, but carrier is too generous to protest in consideration of having been permitted, without cause, to abandon part of his original patrons and promoters and substitute four more miles of turnpike Star line, which imposes on him most of that Star line's work on which are two daily carriers with a schedule which admits of twice the work.

Now if there is any politics in this muddle, it is a safe bet that there is not a patron who would not vote for Taft against the only man this side of China, who feels that he is the only IT.

WILSON CARRIES KANSAS

New Jersey Governor Gets State Thought Safe For Champ Clark

St. Louis, Mo., March 9.—The indications are that Champ Clark has lost Kansas. Wilson is now leading the Missourian, having 147 delegates to the Speaker's 141, and they were selected out of counties that were confidently relied upon to give Clark an overwhelming majority.

Conventions in these counties were called early by the Clark men to stampede Kansas to Clark. But the loss of a majority of their own counties has assured Clark's defeat, the Wilson men say.

Of the 34 counties that have held conventions Wilson carried 18, divided the delegations in three more, leaving Clark only 13 counties and a minority of the delegates.

The county conventions of last Saturday proved a severe shock to the confident Clark men. Up to that time they had been having things pretty much their own way. Of 15 county conventions last Saturday Wilson carried nine, Clark three and three were divided.

Then it became apparent that the Clark men had called conventions in the counties which they were confident of carrying in an effort to stampede the state. But the stampede failed. The Wilson sentiment from the rural counties last Saturday brought Wilson ahead of Clark, and every big county in the state that was counted friendly to Clark has held its convention. The Wilson men predict that Clark will not have to exceed 250 votes of the 750 in the state convention.

WHAT CHILD CAN BEAT THIS?

Adolph William Russell Hawkins, of Frankfort, is probably the most "grandmothered" boy in the Union. He has seven of them. Until last year he had eight, but one of them has died. First of all, Adolph has two everyday grandmothers. The are Mrs. Susan Mary Hawkins, of Lawrenceburg, and Mrs. Anne Peevler, of Mercer county. Then his great grandmothers are Mrs. Elizabeth Peevler and Mrs. Angeline Peevler, of Mercer, and Mrs. Mary Johnson and Mrs. Kittie Hawkins, of Lawrenceburg. Now then, comes a perfectly good great-great-grandmother, in the person of Mrs. Lauretta Whittinghill, of Lebanon Junction.

If there is any child in this section who can equal this record let's hear about it.

FROM A LINCOLN STUDENT AT THE EASTERN NORMAL

The Eastern Kentucky State Normal School chartered a 15 coach special train and visited Frankfort, Tuesday, March 5. Gov. McCreary received them in the reception room and gave a very inspiring talk which the 800 students considered was very complimentary. They visited the legislature, the penitentiary, the state cemetery and other points of interest.

President J. G. Crabbe, has worked very faithfully to secure the passage of an annual appropriation bill this session and has the support of the entire student body. Lincoln county was represented on this excursion by Mrs. Marguerite Spitzer and Miss Sara Howard, of Crab Orchard. Misses Hubble, McKinney and Miss Elizabeth Peavyhouse, of Hustonville.

SMART GINSENG GROWERS

A dispatch from Lexington says a well known local firm which makes a business of buying and exporting ginseng has been heavily mulcted by shrewd mountaineers who gather, dry and market the root. The ginseng is worth $7 per pound, and to make it weigh heavier the tricky mountaineers loaded the roots with lead, and it was done patiently and so artistically that lead was completely hidden. With the blade of a knife an inclusion was made to the heart of the young roots and the lead, rolled into the thickness of a telegraph wire, inserted and cut off to the length of about half an inch. The root grew about and over the lead, covering it completely. More than 100 pounds of the loaded ginseng have been handled in Kentucky this season according to a representative of the firm here.

COLT FUTURITY

Announced By Catalogue Committee of K. P. Fair.

The catalogue committee of the Knights of Pythias fair, is announcing a Colt Futurity as one of the most attractive features of the splendid program which will be given. Nominations for mares are being received now, and so much interest is being taken in it by the many breeders if good stuff in Lincoln and adjoining counties, that it is believed the amount of the stake will go as high as $100.

Mares must be nominated by March 15th when a payment of $1 must be made.

On or before June 1st, a payment of $2 must be made, on each mare, an owner desires to keep eligible and at that time each Mare's name and color and the name of the horse to which she was bred in 1911 must be given.

On August 15th the week before the fair, the color and sex of the foal must be given and a fee of $2 paid. This is the final fee, making $5 in all. The money will be divided into four prizes on a basis of 40 per cent to first; 25 per cent to second; 15 per cent to third and 10 per cent to fourth. It is planned to open a mule colt futurity upon the same basis, in view of the very high class hybrid youngsters which are produced in this section.
